

No Footballs?

Jock McHale and his committee used some unique training techniques. On the night Tom attended training, the team was training without footballs! McHale's goal was to 'freshen' up the players and make them hungry for the footy. Can you complete the following tasks without the named equipment?

Draw a straight line without using a ruler.

Write your name without opening your eyes.

Write a sentence without using the letter 'e'.

Cut out this rectangle without using scissors.
